SUMMER INTERN

Berglund Architects, a twelve person high-end residential focused architectural firm in Edwards Colorado, is seeking a summer architectural intern who has completed their fourth or fifth year of undergraduate Architecture school or second year of an architectural masters program.

Applicants should have excellent graphic, written and verbal communication skills; strong design abilities; basic understanding of Revit software; be self motivated; be a team player; and enjoy working with others in a highly collaborative work environment. Applicants without Revit experience would be required to take a multi day introduction Revit class on their own time and at their own expense.

The firm's studio is in Edwards, 12 miles west of Vail, CO. The firm offers flexible work hours for summer interns. For full time employees, the firm offers full medical benefits, dental benefits, a matching simple IRA, and a season ski pass to employees. The firm has a work hard-play hard culture with excellent learning and advancement opportunities. Berglund Architects specializes in designing cleanly detailed Mountain Modern homes throughout Colorado. Applicants are encouraged to visit the firm's website at to see examples of our work and learn more about the company.

Qualified applicants will be interviewed either via Skype or in person at our office for local applicants.
